

PEACH COBBLER

Delicious, easy-to-make cobbler shared by Sandy Carroll.

PREP: 10 Minutes

BAKE: 1 Hour

SERVINGS: 8

INGREDIENTS:

1 qt. peaches, peeled, pitted and sliced (I find canned sliced peaches work great; or, you can use fresh berries and make a berry cobbler.)

$\frac{3}{4}$ C. milk

$\frac{1}{2}$ C. (1 stick) butter (I use Land of Lakes salted butter)

$\frac{3}{4}$ C. sugar (if using fresh berries, I use closer to 1 C.)

1 C. self-rising flour

DIRECTIONS:

Pre-heat oven to 350 degrees.

Melt butter in 9-by-13 inch baking dish. (I microwave butter 1 minute in dish.)

Mix dry ingredients, add milk, mix again and pour batter over melted butter.

Spread peaches on top (fold batter over peaches) and bake 1 hour or until brown.

Serve warm with vanilla ice cream or whipped cream.
